

The purpose of the Black Law Student Association is to:

- Articulate and promote the educational, professional, political, and social needs and goals of black law students;
- Foster and encourage professional competence;
- Improve the relationship between black law students, black attorneys, and the American legal system;
- Instill in the black attorney and law student a greater awareness and commitment to the needs of the black community;
- Influence the legal community by bringing about a meaningful change which addresses the needs of the black community;
- Encourage the unity of like-minded minority and non-minority students to achieve these goals.

To accomplish these goals, BLSA sponsors active recruitment efforts, guest lectures, first year tutoring, exam review sessions, Big Brother/Big Sister programs, and participation in many regional and national BLSA activities.

The BLSA Executive Board is structured as follows:

- President
- Vice-President
- Treasurer
- Parliamentarian

BLSA does not discriminate or segregate in its membership or any activities on the basis of sex, race, creed, religion, national or ethnic origin, age, marital status, or sexual preference.
