

Charter for

Cardozo Jewish Law Students' Society

Aka "Cardozo Society"

2011-2012

Cardozo Society:

- Is group whose membership, meetings, activities, and services are open to all students at Albany Law School;
- Is organized for the purpose to giving students the ability to explore and observe Jewish culture;
- Will work with other Jewish organizations in the community to organize and promote events;
- Will meet at least three times each semester to further its goals;
- Promises to timely turn in its budget, and understands that failure to do so may adversely affect funding.

Officers for Cardozo Society, 2011-2012

President: Dan Bernstein

Vice President: Elie Soloman

By-Laws for
Cardozo Jewish Law Students' Society
Aka "Cardozo Society"
2011-2012

Article I – Mission

The mission of the Cardozo Society is to provide a group for students to explore and promote Jewish culture through social and educational activities.

Article II – Officers

Executive Officers: Cardozo Society shall have a President, Vice President, and Treasurer.

Election: In April of each year, the executive board shall solicit letters of intent from Cardozo Society members to identify candidates for board positions. Candidates will be interviewed by the current board. The board will then vote to determine officers for the following year.

Removal: Any officer may be removed from office by the Executive Board by unanimous consent of remaining board members for cause.

Responsibilities:

- President: The President shall have general charge of the business and affairs of Cardozo, subject generally to direction of the SBA.
- Vice President: The Vice President shall have such powers and perform such duties and the President may from time to time prescribe. In the absence or inability of the President to perform his duties or exercise his powers, the Vice President shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of the President subject to the direction of the SBA.
- Treasurer: The Treasurer shall have charge of the general supervision of the funds of Cardozo and the books of account of Cardozo and shall exercise the powers and perform the duties incident to the office of the Treasurer.