

Albany Law School Runners:

Statement of Purpose: To organize group runs for students at Albany Law School for various paces and distances for fitness and stress relief.

The club's intention is to facilitate group runs in an effort to increase casual running opportunities, in turn creating a "buddy-system" of sorts for those Albany Law students who want to participate.

Additionally, the club will make efforts to participate in local races, such as those sponsored by Albany Law School and the Albany Running Exchange ("ARE").

Executive Officers:

President: Molly Casey

Treasurer: Molly Casey

Statement of non-discrimination: Albany Law School runners is open to all law students who wish to participate in the group's activities

Constitution:

Article I

I. Membership: All students, faculty, alumni, and staff are eligible to join. A "member" of the club will be any student, faculty, alumni or staff who participates in two or more group runs.

Article II:

I. Executive board: The executive board will accept nominations at the end of the spring semester to fill vacancies for the next academic year.

II. A nomination can be made by anyone, for anyone who was a member of the Albany Law School Runners during the year the nomination was submitted.

a. Nominations can only be endorsed for current Albany Law students